

CHOIRBOYS

The CHOIRBOYS are exactly what Aussie Rock is all about.....

and that's crank it up..... if the amp blows up, KICK IT!.....

..... if you BREAK a string, BURN the guitar.....

break a cymbal, TRASH the kit.....

as long as they have a pulse, they are ROCK!

April 2003 - Choirboys embarked on a national concert tour – The Great Pub Rock Tour – performing some 160 dates around Australia before finishing up in June 2004.

May 2004 – Choirboys sign to Shock Records - new album 'Evolver' is released performing well at retail.

September 2004 - saw the guys perform a number of dates for the Australian Defence Forces as a part of their "Tour De Force" strategy – to lift moral and relieve the boredom of bullets, bombs and loads of cheap DVD's. These included shows in Baghdad, Kuwait, Solomon Islands and a number of "classified secret locations" that don't exist.

March 2005 - the boys hit the road again on an 'all stops' national concert tour. Over 150 concert dates throughout Australia have been confirmed to date making this tour one of their biggest event. Once this leg is complete in early 2006 the band will head overseas to NZ, the UK, Canada and Germany.

Since themed 80's the Choirboys have been performing in pubs, clubs, theatres, concert halls and football grounds around the world. Along the way they've released some of the biggest and most influential songs of the past two decades - hits including the rock anthems 'Run to Paradise', 'Boys will be Boys', 'Never Gonna Die' and 'Struggletown'.

The bands' original front man, Mark Gable (lead vocals/guitar) along with co-founder Ian Hulme (bass/vocals) still head up this slick rock outfit. The Choirboys are complete with the addition one of Australia's best rock drummers Paul Wheeler.

On stage THE CHOIRBOYS are energetic, charismatic and compelling musicians. Their show highlights the bands chart topping hits along with the great new tracks from 'Evolver'.

February 2005

With a reputation as one of Australia's foremost live rock bands CHOIRBOYS are a must see.
